Mr. Antuna grew up in South San Antonio and graduated from South San Antonio High School. He then attended San Antonio College before transferring to the University of Texas at San Antonio where he graduated with his BBA in Marketing Management. Shortly after graduation and working in corporate America Mr. Antuna made the 40 Under 40 Rising Star list in the SA Business Journal. Keeping one foot in the private sector and the other in the public, Mr. Antuna has built a passion for community smart growth policy and embracing the concept that a community should be the place where people can live, work and play.

Mr. Antuna has years in the public sector, including his current public service post as City Manager in Eagle Pass, TX. Past posts included Director of Protocol for the Texas Secretary of State, Policy Analyst of Workforce Development, City of Schertz Economic Development, and International Relations for the Lt. Governor's Office. In that capacity, Mr. Antuna attended the "historical" inauguration of former Mexican President Vicente Fox in December of 2000. He also worked for U.S. Senator Kay Bailey Hutchison as Regional Director for San Antonio, South Central Texas, and El Paso.

Mr. Antuna serves as an alum for the Texas Lyceum, Member of Rotary Club, President of the Friends of Eagle Pass 501c3, past member of the State Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners, served on the Workforce Solutions Alamo (aka SA Workforce Development Board), Guadalupe Valley Electric Coop information committee, San Antonio-Bexar County MPO, Lonestar Commuter Rail District, and former ex-officio of Schertz Seguin LGC Water District. Mr. Antuna's leisure time involves spending time with family, playing tennis and golfing.
